

© Andy Murch

DUSKY SHARK

The Dusky Shark is characterised by its dusky grey coloration, powerful build, and wide distribution in tropical and temperate oceans worldwide.

SCIENTIFIC NAME: Carcharhinus obscurus

DIET: Bony fishes, elasmobranchs and crustaceans.

DISTRIBUTION: Worldwide in tropical and warm temperate shelf waters.

MAXIMUM SIZE: 4.2 m

HABITAT: Continental and insular shelves, from the shoreline to adjacent oceanic waters, 0-500 m.

DISTRIBUTION MAP:

CONSERVATION STATUS:

Endangered