

© Doug Perrine/Alamy

PORBEAGLE

Porbeagles are a powerful shark species with distinctive conical snout, large first dorsal fin and a reputation as an agile predator of cold-temperate waters.

SCIENTIFIC NAME: Lamna nasus

DIET: Bony fish and cephalopods.

DISTRIBUTION: North Atlantic and North Pacific, including the UK. Also found in Southern Hemisphere.

MAXIMUM SIZE: 3.65 m

HABITAT: Inshore up to 1800 m offshore in the open ocean. Including continental shelves, slopes, and deeper waters.

DISTRIBUTION MAP:

CONSERVATION STATUS:

Vulnerable