

© Dan Abbott/Save the Med

GIANT DEVIL RAY

The Giant Devil Ray is a majestic marine species characterised by its impressive size, graceful movements, and distinctive horn-shaped cephalic fins.

DISTRIBUTION: Circumglobal in tropical and subtropical seas.

MAXIMUM SIZE: 3.2 m

SCIENTIFIC NAME: Mobula mobular

HABITAT: Pelagic, inshore and offshore.

DIET: Planktonic crustaceans and small bony fishes.

DISTRIBUTION MAP:

CONSERVATION STATUS:

Endangered